

• AMYCEL • MONTEREY MUSHROOMS • SPAWN MATE •

Notice of Salaried Position
February 19, 2008

Title: Quality Assurance Manager
Location: Amycel-Madisonville, Texas Facility
Supervisor: Rey Navarro, Production Manager

This is a full-time, salaried exempt position with benefits.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Oversee established methods and protocols necessary for efficient production and quality products on all aspects of spawn making.
- Collect data, interpret, analyze, archive and provide documentation for management. Identify areas for improvement.
- Ability to assume a managerial role and direct necessary operations and personnel.
- Develop test protocols and parameters when necessary.
- Analyze raw materials for quality assurance standards.
- Assist in customer related issues and resolution follow through.
- Oversee product movement through production cycle.
- Assist and/or oversee technical and procedural tasks: media preparation, cleanroom procedures, sanitation, temperature/humidity recordings, CO2 readings, interpret production media plate results, etc.
- Input, audit, query production information in the A/S 400 and Microsoft Access.
- Review data weekly with management and production for QA problem solving and preventive measures.
- Prepare QA reports for distribution on a weekly basis.

Qualifications:

- Minimum High School diploma with at least 2 years of college, preferably in a science discipline. College degree preferred. Knowledge of microbiology helpful. Management experience a plus.
- Computer literate in Microsoft Office.
- Physically able to assist in Product Movement.
- Satisfactory communication skills, both verbal and written, is essential.

For additional information or to apply for this position, contact Human Resources at 936-348-2781